DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1-39 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Ginter et al (U.S. PG Pub No. 2005/0177716).

3. As per claims Ginter et al teach a method for managing a file system, comprising:
assigning a price to at least one resource of the file system; receiving an application program interface (API) call from a user of the file system asking to access the at least one resource; and providing the at least one resource to the user while charging the user in response to the API call for use of the resource in accordance with the assigned price (see abstract, pps 0010-0020, 2078).

4. As per claims 2-39, they disclose the same invention as claim 1 and do not further limit the inventive concept in the disclosure. Therefore, they are rejected under the same rationale as claim 1.

Conclusion

Although the specified citations are representative of the teachings in the art and are applied to the specific limitations within the individual claim, other passages and figures may apply as well. It is respectfully requested that if the applicant is preparing to respond, to consider fully the entire references as potentially teaching all or part of the claimed invention, as well as the context of the passage as taught by the prior arts or disclosed by the examiner.

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. (see form 892).
